

J. L. WHITAKER.

APRIL 24, 1884.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. LORE, from the Committee on Claims, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill H. R. 4449.]

The Committee on Claims, to whom was referred bill H. R. 4449, having had the same under consideration, submit the following report:

It appears from the proof in this case that on July 27, 1881, George H. Weeks, major and quartermaster and disbursing officer of the United States Army at Fort Leavenworth, Kans., drew and delivered to said J. L. Whitaker a check on the Assistant Treasurer of the United States for the sum of $1,907.51. The check was lost or destroyed in transit between Leavenworth, Kans., and Saint Louis, Mo.

The Secretary of the Treasury recommends that a duplicate be issued, as provided in the bill as amended.

Your committee therefore recommend the passage of the bill with the amendment.
